Hot Water Bottles.

We don't claim that the Esquimo uses a hot water bottle but he would if we were running a drug store in Greenland; because we would call his attention to our complete line of these goods at bottom prices. We are liable to have some Arctic weather this winter—cold enough to make people think they're on an iceberg. It will be a good time then to think of our hot water bottles.

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER
TUESDAY, DEC. 8, 1897

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Among the gentlemen present last evening at the meeting to organize the baseball league were Robert Kirk and L. C. Moore, of Zanesville; George S. Melyin and Albert Kellhafer, of Washington C. H.; Sig. Marecs, of Parkersburg, and D. R. Hammond, of Canal Dover. The meeting lasted far into the early hours of the morning and at last report a name had not been decided upon.

—St. Luke's church will enjoy a social this Tuesday evening. Supper at 5:30. Everybody invited.

—The Junior Club met last night at the College House, Mr. John Donagho being host. The subject, "Club Life vs. Home Life" provoked a general and most interesting discussion. The meeting was an unusually large one.

—Work on the electric street-car line is progressing as rapidly as possible, though operations will be slightly delayed on account of a defective engine cylinder which had to be recast. The cars are completed and ready for shipment on any day. They will be heated and lighted by electricity and elegantly furnished.

—The firm of Strecker Bros. contemplate a large addition to their building on Putnam street, rendered necessary by the growth of their business. They expect to add two stories next spring to their already capacious quarters and will put in an electric elevator.

—The Steamer Bob Ballard broke her shaft at Willow Island Saturday and is now lying at the West Side landing undergoing repairs.

—Useful and fancy articles for Christmas presents on sale at the Bazar of Nations.

—Mrs. Estella Hopper has accepted a position as stenographer and typewriter in the Bellevue Hotel.

—Mr. M. J. McMahon, of the Buckeye Pipe Line office, removed Monday with his family to 331 Third street.

—Mr. Jack Goldsmith, the drayman, was seriously hurt Monday while handling a printing press at the union depot. The machine fell on him and his face and head were bruised in a shocking manner.

—In the bastardy case of Flora Burris vs. Daniel Cassidy, tried in Common Pleas Court Monday a verdict was returned for the plaintiff. Cassidy was ordered to pay her $300 or stand committed to jail for ninety days.

—Mr. Charles Jones returned last evening from a visit to Cincinnati.

—Truman Harris, aged 25 years, died Sunday night of injuries and exposure recently received by falling into the engine pit at the T. & O. C. Ex. shops, West Side. Funeral Tuesday at 1:30 p. m.

—The Fairview Heights Sunday School is fast nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy before the first of the year. The building has a floor space of 25-342 feet.

—Mr. Charles R. Elston is erecting a green-house on Fairview Heights.

—Mrs. C. W. Holz has just received an elegant and well selected stock of cut glass for Christmas trade. See it.

—Geo. B. Sunderland sold the Herman Muhlbach property on Putnam street Monday to Nelson Moore, who proposes to erect a business block on the premises.

—Miss Mary R. Moffet bought through G. B. Sunderland Saturday the Harry Christ property on Hart street. Consideration, $1,200.

—The Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Congregational church will give their annual supper this Tuesday evening at the Chapel from 5 to 7 o'clock. Ice cream will be served during the evening.

—Teachers' certificates granted in November: Two years: J. E. Breckenridge. One year: Hattie Barnhart, Millie Bell, Lizzie Christy, Lon A. Hagerman, Minnie Leget, Lizzie Spindler, Nellie Webber, F. B. Hildebrand, John M. Dermott, J. C. H. Metge, Walter Pierpoint.

—Papers found among the effects of J. V. Murdock, the stranger who died here Nov. 5th, disclosed the fact that he was a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, hailing from a point in Pennsylvania, and by which membership his heirs will receive $2000. The official papers referring to said death have just been filled out and forwarded by Mr. W. H. Styer, acting for Marietta lodge.

—There were nine accessions to the membership of the First M. E. church last Sunday.

—There will be a called meeting of Boell W. R. C. Tuesday evening, Dec. 8th. Every member is requested to be present.

—Sam Young's Melville Company appeared at the Auditorium last night before a full house in "The Pearl of Savoy." The program for this evening is "Christmas Bells." Many features of the opening performance pleased the audience greatly and the company is up to the usual standard of 10, 20 and 30 cent shows.

—Mrs. T. J. Worster, West Side, died at 3:30 this morning of pneumonia.

—A marvel of choice goods for Christmas at Mrs. C. W. Holz's, 280 Front St.

—Editor J. W. Dumble and wife, of Middleport, O., passed through Marietta yesterday on their way home from Borland Springs, where Mr. Dumble had been receiving treatment for stomach trouble.

—Misses Lucy and Nannie Shaw, of Parkersburg, are guests of relatives in the city.

—Dr. Thad Reamy, of Cincinnati, is the guest of relatives in the city.

—See the dolls and millinery opening at the Bazar of Nations.

—Many of the boats that went no farther than Cincinnati during the recent rise are expected back today. Those which went as far as Louisville left that city on their return trip Saturday. With the exception of the accidents at the Louisville and Nashville railroad bridge at Cincinnati, the trip has been a lucky one. On account of the false work put up in repairing that bridge both the Rescue and the Pacific No. 2 sank a barge, the Carrier was damaged and trouble was caused to the boats which did not get through safely. As the obstructions were ordered to be taken away before the fleet arrived, the coal operators will likely sue for damages. As the river is rapidly falling, the returning boats may have some difficulty in getting into the harbor with their empties.

—A daughter was born Sunday night to Mr. and Mrs. John Gerken, West Side.

—China for decorating. All sorts of pretty things. See them at Mrs. C. W. Holz's, 280 Front St.

A. Jas. Griffith; Sir Kt. Ist. M. G. Fred Chamberlain; Sir Kt. 2nd M. G. F. M. Covey; Sir Kt. Sentinel, W. H. Covey; Sir Kt. Picket, Samuel La Fever.

—A young clothing salesman, whose initials are Fred Kremer, distinguished himself Monday by eating, at one sitting, on a wager, two dozen cream puffs. Fred demonstrated that he is a lad of capacity, but he will probably never enjoy again the taste of cream puffs.

—Go to the Bazar of Nations for your Christmas puddings.

—Mrs. E. L. Wulff, of Cincinnati, an expert palmist, will be in the gipsy tent at the Bazar of Nations. Be sure and see her.

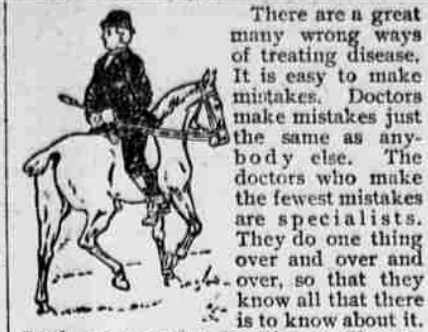

—The Supreme Court of Ohio has handed down a decision of much interest to oil men and one by which Mr. Diarea A. Dye, of this county, is almost $6,000 better off than he would have been had the decision gone against him. The case was carried up from the Common Pleas Court of this county and was known as Diarea A. Dye vs. W. H. Mandeville and others. Mr. Dye sold to the defendants about five years ago oil leases in Newport township for which he received $800 in cash and in the event that the first Berea wells should produce an average of 10 barrels each for 30 days after completion, he was to receive $4,200. The wells were drilled and for the first 30 days fell below the specified average. Upon being shot, however, they produced the required amount of oil and Mr. Dye claimed his $4,200. The defendants contested on the ground that a Berea well is completed when shot, but the Common Pleas Court decided that a well in this sand is not complete until shot and the Supreme Court affirms the decision. The $4,200, with interest to date makes Mr. Dye's judgment amount to $5,700. His attorneys were Nye & Follett, of this city.

The Base Ball League.

When the hour arrived Monday evening for the meeting of the baseball managers to organize a minor League as already outlined in the Leader, there were present representatives from Marietta, Zanesville, Parkersburg, Washington C. H. and Canal Dover. Cambridge failed to come up to the scratch at the last minute. The meeting was held in the Board of Trade rooms and lasted practically all night. The League is a sure go. Marietta, Zanesville and Parkersburg went into it immediately and applications were received from both Washington C. H. and Canal Dover. Should the League be limited to four clubs one of the latter will have to be dropped, but it is hoped and confidently expected that Chillicothe, Portsmouth or some other good town will want to come in and thus make it a six-club organization.

There are a great many wrong ways of treating disease. It is easy to make mistakes. Doctors make mistakes just the same as anybody else. The doctors who make the fewest mistakes are specialists. They do one thing over and over and over, so that they know all that there is to know about it. In the 30 years that Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets have been sold, hundreds of thousands of people have taken them, and have been cured by them. There is no longer any possible question of their efficacy. They are the product of experience, tried by time. They are intended to cure constipation. They are good for men, women and children. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, very easy to take, very quick in their action. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two "Pellets" a mild cathartic. A great many people make the mistake of "sandbagging" their digestive organs. They take some strong and violent medicine, which creates worse troubles than it cures. Strong purgatives shock the system unnecessarily, and they do not cure constipation. Constipation is a thing that makes people listless and languid; makes their breath bad; wakes them up with foul taste in their mouths; puts black spots before their eyes; makes them dizzy; causes headache; makes them bilious; produces pimples and blotches—runs into all sorts of serious consequences. All this is cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—cured absolutely, perfectly, permanently.

Send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and receive absolutely gratis, Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, and find out how to keep yourself and family healthy; contains 1008 pages, over 300 illustrations and over 600,000 copies have been sold at $1.50 each. The new edition of 500,000 copies is to be given away absolutely free. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
